CITY/SOUNDS.io

- CITY/SOUNDS is a location-based playlist generator that dynamically creates playlists out of artists from a city, and animates the city's weather condition in real-time.
- The one-page app is integrated with Spotify's Web API, Echo Nest's API, and OpenWeather API, and built using React and Node.js (Express).

Catcademy: Outcomes Tracker

- The Outcomes Tracker an online portal for a fictitious bootcamp that allows teachers/graduates to track employment statuses across the program through charts and surveys.
- I was responsible for the front-end design and development, including creating the color scheme, designing the logo, and implementing responsive design and animation using HTML, CSS/SASS, and jQuery.
- The rest of the app is developed using Ruby on Rails, React, JavaScript, Chart.js, and ActionMailer.

Code & Design

- Code & Design is a Wiki-style Rails app where users can create an account, and post, share, tag, and search topics in coding/design.
- I used PostgreSQL to create a relational database between articles, tags, and users.

Workable

Jul 2014 - Aug 2015

Business Development Manager, NYC

Joined a Greek ATS software startup to kick off their first US office in NYC, which ended up relocating to Boston. I held my own in NY, remotely managing Workable's greater NYC presence through sales, relationship building, and organizing events with the local tech/SME/HR community like Indeed, SimplyHired, StackExchange, Etsy, HubSpot, and more.

UK Trade & Investment

Mar 2012 - Jun 2014

Business Development Associate, NYC

I won the UK roughly 7+ US tech businesses to expand their offices to the UK every year - ranging from SMEs to high growth tech startups like Kickstarter, Percolate, and Shutterstock. I also played a key role in growing UKTI's relationships with New York's tech community through event planning, networking, and outreach.
